

1-Day Workshop – 12th November 2009

Leading your Team in Challenging Times

“Generate a very positive dynamic in your team
to beat the doom and gloom environment”

Date: Thursday 12th November 2009

Time: 9am to 5pm

Venue: DCU Ryan Academy

Cost: 270 Euro

In challenging times people require stronger leadership.

This workshop will help entrepreneurs/managers to generate a different attitude in leading their team/company in making the best of the present situation.

By attending this training seminar participants will learn to:

- Understand the role of a the team leader in challenging times
- See your own potential and learn about your leadership style
- Define and communicate a vision and a strategy
- Empower employees and avoid micro-managing

Who Would Benefit:

This workshop is ideal for those who wish to harness the potential of employees in their team.

Number of participants limited to 12

Programme:

Participants will learn through:

- Input from trainer-coach
- Working on case studies (individual and team)
- Specific exercises (role play, tests, practical exercises)
- Coaching
- Finding their own solutions for the months to come

Morning

Introduction

- Team exercise (experiencing a crisis situation)
- Leadership required in a difficult time, role, focus, attitude, communication
- Where empowerment is needed
- Selecting case study with participants

Lunch

Afternoon

- Attitude supporting team
- Work on case study to develop a successful team
- Evaluation

To Book a Place on this workshop call: (01) 7006786
