Irish Language Policy - Fiontar & Scoil na Gaeilge

- Teaching in Fiontar & Scoil na Gaeilge teaching is done entirely through the medium of Irish.

- Irish is always used in class notes, PowerPoint presentations and in any other materials used in the classroom.

- Examination papers are answered in Irish unless an alternative is proposed.

- Continuous assessments are done through Irish unless an alternative is proposed.

- It is at the discretion of a lecturer to reduce continuous assessments or examination marks by up to 20%, or not to accept work, due to illegibility or lack of professionalism.

- Computer labs are available to students of Fiontar and Scoil na Gaeilge on the understanding that they follow the School’s Irish language policy at all times.
