Job Purpose:
DCU is implementing a Health Promoting University/Healthy Workplace project in line with the University’s strategic priorities. Our Mission is ‘To create a healthy campus which promotes physical, mental and social wellbeing where communities thrive’. The purpose of the Health Promotion Officer role is to support the work of the Health Promoting University/Healthy Workplace project as directed by the DCU Healthy Steering Committee.

The role of the Health Promotion Officer is to promote awareness of health and wellbeing and to motivate staff and students to increase control over their health, through planning, coordinating and implementing health & wellbeing interventions, education campaigns and initiatives.

Duties & Responsibilities:

1. Coordinate and provide administrative support for the DCU Healthy Steering Committee and subsequent Working Groups and Task Groups
2. Co-ordinate the identification, development and delivery of health promotion policies and initiatives in action areas including but not limited to Healthy Eating, Alcohol, Mental Health, Smoking, Sexual Health, Physical Activity etc.
3. Coordinate the development of a systems-wide health orientation with attention to ‘choice architectures’ and conditions for health improvement
4. Source and/or develop health promotion materials and public information campaigns.
5. Develop and maintain DCU Healthy communication channels, including website content and social media for DCU Healthy
6. Evaluate, monitor, and review health promotion programmes to ensure effectiveness and provide recommendations for future programmes.

7. Work in collaboration with various administrative and academic departments in DCU, including but not limited to the need to cooperate and liaise with the Human Resources Department, Student Support & Development, Office of Student Life, Students’ Union, DCU Sport, School of Nursing & Human Sciences, School of Health and Human Performance etc.

8. Liaising as appropriate with external organisations including but not limited to other universities, community groups, Healthy Ireland, HSE Health Promotion Units etc.

9. Performing such other duties related to the post as assigned from time to time by the DCU Healthy Steering Committee and/or the Director of Sport and Healthy Campus.
